AN ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE CODE OF DEKALB COUNTY, GEORGIA, CHAPTER 5, PERTAINING TO ANIMALS, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

WHEREAS, the Governing Authority of DeKalb County is tasked with the protection of the public health, safety, and general welfare; and

WHEREAS, this ordinance is designed to protect the public from diseases transmitted by animals; prevent animal neglect and cruelty; proactively place animals in healthy adoptive and foster care; maintain safe communities for people and animals alike; and provide humane treatment for animals that come under the care of DeKalb County;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Governing Authority of DeKalb County, Georgia, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of same, that Chapter 5 of the Code of DeKalb County, Georgia, as Revised 1988, entitled "Animals," is amended as follows:

PART I. ENACTMENT

Chapter 5 of the Code of Ordinances of DeKalb County, Georgia, is deleted in its entirety and a new Chapter 5 is enacted to read as follows:

Sec. 5-1. - Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter, certain terms and words are hereby defined. Where words or terms are not herein defined, but are defined in section 1-2 or other applicable sections of this Code or state law, now and as they may be amended hereafter, those words shall have the meaning as defined therein. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following words and terms shall have the meaning ascribed to them:

Abandonment means the intentional or complete forsaking of any animal by its owner, without making reasonable arrangements for the adequate care and custody of the animal to be assumed by another person or the failure to return and resume responsibility of an animal at the designated time as arranged with the care giver. Abandonment also means the act of placing an animal on public property or within a public building, unattended or uncared for, or on or within the private property of another without the express permission of the owner, custodian or tenant of the private property. An animal shall also be considered abandoned when it has been unattended and without adequate and proper food and water for a period in excess of thirty-six (36) hours, regardless of where such animal may be found or kept.

Adequate care means exhibiting attention to the needs of an animal, including but not limited to, the provision of food, water, shelter, sanitary, safe and healthy conditions, and adequate and timely veterinary medical attention necessary to maintain good health for the specific age, size, species, and breed of animal.

Adequate food means sufficient quantity of non-contaminated and nutritionally healthy sustenance that is appropriate to the species, breed, size, age and health of the animal, or at the direction of a licensed veterinarian; which is sufficient to prevent starvation, malnutrition, or risk to the animal's health. Garbage, spoiled, rancid, or contaminated food is not adequate food.

Adequate shelter means a protective covering for a domestic animal that provides adequate space and protection to maintain the animal in a state of good health, and that prevents pain, suffering, or significant risk to the animal's health. Adequate shelter shall consist of a completely enclosed structure with four (4) sides, a constructed floor, and a roof with a door opening. It should also be clean, dry and compatible with current weather conditions, in addition to age, size, species and condition of the animal. The structure should be of sufficient size to allow the animal to stand, turn around, lie down and go in and out of the structure comfortably. To be adequate, some type of bedding that is quick drying, such as hay or pine straw, must be provided to maintain comfortable temperatures within the structure during times when the ambient, outside temperature is below freezing. In addition, the structure shall include a heavy plastic or rubber flap to cover the door and/or window openings during the months of November through March. From April through October, the structure shall either be shaded or moved out of direct sunlight. If the shelter is made of wood, it shall be raised at least two (2) inches off the ground to prevent seepage or rotting. Examples of inadequate shelter include, but are not limited to, lean-tos, metal or plastic drums, boxes, abandoned vehicles, porches, decks, or material that does not provide sufficient protection from the elements.

Adequate water means clean, fresh, potable water sufficient to prevent dehydration and properly sustain health presented in a clean dish, free from contamination. Examples of inadequate water include, but are not limited to, snow, ice and rancid/contaminated water.

~~Adoption facilitator means any individual, group, entity, organization or business licensed through the State of Georgia, Department of Agriculture, Animal Protection Division, or Equine Protection Division as a wildlife rehabilitator or animal rescue group.~~

Animal means every living vertebrate except a human being.

Animal at large means any animal moving without physical restraint and not on its owner's property.

Animal enforcement officer means any person authorized by the governing authority or by law to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

Animal service center means the facility designated by the governing authority for the detention of animals in the county and includes the animal control center facility identified and defined in Chapter 13 of this Code.

Classified animal pen means a padlocked pen, as that term is defined in this chapter, made entirely of industrial gauge fencing with a door or gate equipped with a working lock. The classified animal pen must contain adequate shelter, as that term is defined in this chapter, but must also contain a minimum one hundred square foot area outside the adequate shelter.

Community cat means an unowned free-roaming cat that may or may not be cared for by one or more persons and may or may not be feral.

Community cat program means a comprehensive process whereby community cats are captured humanely, transported to a veterinarian for evaluation, spay/neuter surgery, rabies vaccination and marking by surgical ear-tip, and returned to the area or location where the cat was captured.

Cruelty means causing death or unjustifiable pain or suffering to any animal by an act, an omission, or neglect. Cruelty also includes transporting an unrestrained animal in an unrestrained open-air vehicle or transporting an unrestrained animal in the trunk of any vehicle, or leaving an animal unattended in a closed vehicle without proper ventilation or temperature control, where the outside air temperature is eighty (80) to seventy (70) degrees Fahrenheit or above. Cruelty also means allowing or causing any animal to participate in training for or engaging in an animal fight operated for sport, entertainment or gaming purposes. Routine medical procedures by a licensed veterinarian shall not be regarded as cruelty.

Dangerous animal means any animal that, according to the records of an appropriate authority:

(1) ~~Inflicts severe injury on a human being without provocation on public or private property; or~~

(1) Causes a substantial puncture of a person's skin by teeth without causing serious injury, provided, however, that a nip, scratch, or abrasion shall not be sufficient to classify an animal as dangerous;

(2) Aggressively bites, attacks, or endangers the safety of humans or any other animal without provocation after in a manner that causes a person to reasonably believe that the animal has been classified as a potentially dangerous animal and after the owner has been notified poses an imminent threat of serious injury to such classification; or person or another person although no such injury occurs; provided, however, that the acts of barking, growling, or showing of teeth by an animal shall not be sufficient to classify an

Sec. 5-2. - General responsibilities of owners.

(a) It shall be the duty of every owner of an animal to take all necessary steps and precautions to protect other people, property, and other animals from injury or damage resulting from such animal's behavior, including, but not limited to, chasing, biting, or otherwise jeopardizing the safety or welfare of the public, regardless of whether such behavior is motivated by mischievousness, playfulness, or ferocity.

(b) If the owner of an animal is a minor, the parent or guardian of such minor shall be responsible to ensure full compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

(c) It shall be the duty of every owner of an animal to immediately remove excrement deposited by the animal on any street or right-of-way. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any animal aiding the handicapped (e.g., guide dog) or to an animal used for law enforcement related activities.

~~(d) Domesticated or caged non-farm animals may not make any vocalizations for more than fifteen (15) minutes without interruption or more than thirty (30) minutes if the vocalization is intermittent. These time limits do not apply if the vocalizations are given as a warning to the presence of an intruder. Officers enforcing this subsection are not required to measure the vocalizations with the use of a sound level meter and are not required to be noise control officers as defined by this Code. Upon notification of a complaint concerning such vocalizations, the owner of such animal shall be given a written warning indicating that such animal is creating a disturbance, so long as the complainant provides the police chief with the address of the owner. If the disturbance is not resolved within two (2) days or a subsequent complaint is made for such animal by a different individual, who resides at a different location from the first complainant, a court summons shall be issued in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.~~

(d) Owners may not allow any domesticated or other animals within their control to make any vocalizations in violation of the county noise ordinance.

Formatted: English (U.S.)

Sec. 5-3. - Keeping animal under restraint while on owner's property.

(a) It shall be the duty of every owner of an animal to ensure that the animal is kept under restraint, and that precautions are taken to prevent the animal from leaving, while unattended, the real property limits of its owner.

(b) It shall be the duty of every owner of an animal to ensure that the animal is securely and humanely enclosed within a proper enclosure as a means of primary restraint. Such enclosure must be securely locked at any time the animal is left unattended. When outside the proper enclosure but on the owner's property, it shall be the duty of every owner of an animal to ensure that the animal is humanely secured by a leash or lead and under the control of a responsible and competent person; or off leash but under the direct control of a responsible and competent person who is physically present with the animal, provided that such animal is obedient to that person's command.

(c) Any animal that is housed outside of its owner's house shall be housed in a proper enclosure that complies with the provisions of this Code. The owner shall also ensure that the proper enclosure contains at least one hundred (100) square feet of open space as that term is defined in Chapter 27 of this Code.

(d) Tethering of an animal is prohibited.

Formatted: Footer, Left, Widow/Orphan control, Adjust space between Latin and Asian text, Adjust space between Asian text and numbers

(e) As a secondary means of restraint to a proper enclosure, an animal may be attached to a running cable line or trolley system providing that:

- (1) A running cable line or trolley system is set inside a proper enclosure;
- (2) Only one (1) animal may be attached to each running cable line or trolley system;
- (3) No animal may be attached to a running cable line or trolley system for more than twelve (12) hours in a twenty-four-hour period;
- (4) No animal may be attached to a running cable line or trolley system between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.;
- (5) Tethers and cables attaching the animal to the running cable line or trolley system must be made of a substance which cannot be chewed by the animal and shall not weigh more than five (5) percent of the body weight of the animal tethered;
- (6) A running cable line or trolley system must have a swivel installed at each end and be attached to a stationary object that cannot be moved by the animal;
- (7) The running cable line or trolley system must be at least ten (10) feet in length and mounted at least four (4) feet and no more than seven (7) feet above ground level;
- (8) The length of the tether from the running cable line or trolley system to the animal's collar should allow access to the maximum available exercise area and allow the animal free access to food, water, and shelter;
- (9) Be attached to a properly fitted harness or collar not used for the display of a current rabies tag and other identification; and with enough room between the collar and the dog's throat through which two (2) fingers may fit. Choke collars and pinch collars are prohibited for the purpose of tethering an animal to a running cable line or trolley system; and
- (10) Be tethered at sufficient distance from any other objects to prohibit the tangling of the cable, from extending over an object or an edge that could result in injury of strangulation of the animal and be of sufficient distance from any fence so as to prohibit the animal access to the fence.

(f) If an electronic animal confinement system is used to confine an animal, it shall:

- (1) Provide a properly fitted and working signal device that will be worn by the animal to be enclosed.
- (2) Contain permanent and prominently displayed signs at twenty-five (25) feet intervals around the entire perimeter of the electronic animal confinement system. The signs shall be no smaller than six (6) inches square, and shall read: "Caution—Electronic Animal Confinement System."

Sec. 5-4. - Duty to restrain while off owner's property.

It shall be the duty of any person to keep an animal under restraint and control at all times while the animal is off the real property limits of the owner. Such areas shall not include county parks that are specifically designated as off leash areas.

Sec. 5-5. - Animals at large.

It shall be unlawful for the owner of an animal to allow it to run at large unattended on or about the streets, right of ways, and highways of unincorporated DeKalb County; in any DeKalb County park, except in county parks that are specifically designated as off leash areas; unattended on or about the common property of any apartment complex or condominium community; or on the property of another person without permission of the owner of that property. This section shall not apply to dogs being used for hunting in accordance with state law, rules and regulations.

Sec. 5-6. - Abandonment.

It shall be unlawful for anyone to knowingly abandon, or to aid in the abandonment of, any domesticated animal on any property located in unincorporated DeKalb County.

Sec. 5-7. - Neglect.

~~It shall be unlawful for any personowner to fail to provide adequate care or adequate shelter for any domesticneglect an animal.~~

Sec. 5-8. - Cruelty to animals.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to commit an act of cruelty towards any animal, ~~except that a person may:~~

- (1) Defend his person or property, or the person or property of another, from injury or damage being caused by an animal; or
- (2) Kill any animal causing injury or damage to any livestock, poultry or pet animal.

(b) The method used for killing the animal shall be as humane as possible under the circumstances. A person who humanely kills an animal under the circumstances indicated in subsection (a) of this section shall incur no penalty for such death.

(c) This section shall not be construed to limit in any way the authority or duty of any law enforcement officer, dog or rabies control officer, humane society or veterinarian.

Sec. 5-9. - Required permanent identification.

~~It shall be the duty of every animal owner who has been convicted, in a court of competent jurisdiction, of abandonment, cruelty or neglect of an animal by a court of competent jurisdiction or, or who owns a dangerous or potentially dangerousclassified animal, to have the animal permanently identified by insertion of a microchip by a licensed veterinarian. Said chip must be registered with the chip parent company and the police chief.~~

Sec. 5-10. ~~7~~ Dangerous and potentially dangerous/vicious animals.

- (a) ~~If Pursuant to 1979 Ga. Laws 516, if~~ the police chief learns of the existence of a dangerous animal or ~~potentially dangerous/vicious~~ animal, the police chief shall then cause a summons to be issued within seventy-two (72) hours requiring the owner of the animal to appear before a judge of the DeKalb County recorder's court or magistrate court, as specified below, at a date and time certain no earlier than fifteen (15) days after service, to conduct a hearing as to the appropriate classification of the animal. The summons so issued shall be served on the owner personally. Prior to July 1, 2015, such actions shall be heard in DeKalb County recorder's court and after July 1, 2015, such actions shall be heard in DeKalb County magistrate court. The police chief shall also immediately impound the animal believed to be dangerous or ~~potentially dangerous/vicious~~.
- (b) The court shall determine after a hearing if the animal is to be classified as a dangerous animal or ~~potentially dangerous/vicious~~ animal. In making its findings in this regard, the court shall enter a written order notifying the animal's owner and the police chief of its decision.
- (c) The appeal of any order of the court concerning the classification of an animal as ~~potentially dangerous/vicious~~ or dangerous shall be by petition for writ of certiorari to the superior court of DeKalb County.
- (d) If the court classifies the animal as dangerous or ~~potentially dangerous/vicious~~, and no appeal is filed, the owner shall be required to obtain from the police chief an annual certificate of registration in compliance with the requirements of this chapter ~~from the police chief~~. No ~~potentially dangerous/vicious~~ or dangerous animal shall be released to its owners until such certificate is issued by the police chief.
- (e) If the owner fails to obtain the certificate of registration within thirty (30) days of the issuance of the order classifying the animal as required by this chapter ~~dangerous or vicious~~, the animal will not be released and will be euthanized no earlier than 35 days after the issuance of the order so classifying the animal. The animal shall not be euthanized if the owner appeals the court's classification order by petition for writ of certiorari to the superior court of DeKalb County. In the event the owner appeals the court's order within 30 days after the order of classification. During the pendency of the appeal and any further appeals, the animal shall not be euthanized, provided that in the event the classification order is upheld at the conclusion of all appeals, the animal shall be euthanized no earlier than 35 days after the final order upholding the classification if the owner does not obtain the required certificate of registration within 30 days after the date of the final order of court upholding the classification order. During the pendency of any such appeal by the owner, the animal shall not be released to its owner until the appeal is concluded and the certificate of registration is issued to the owner, if applicable.
